March is Reading Month!

Reading Is Fundamental is proud to partner with National Education Association to promote the Read Across America 2018-19 calendar. Celebrate and grow a community of readers with carefully selected titles and activities for each month. These books drive home the message. The people with their diverse interest and backgrounds, are what make our communities across the country special and strong. Each month's book features activities and resources to build on the theme of neighborhood and community.
